CSU Board of Trustees
Committee on Educational Policy – Item 3
May 12, 2020

1

CSU Legacy

50 Years of Social Change

- 1969 Students at San Francisco State University strikes lead to the establishment of the College of Ethnic Studies
- Formation of Ethnic Studies departments across CSU campuses
- 2019 Cal State LA establishes the College of Ethnic Studies

2

Defining Ethnic Studies and Social Justice

- Interdisciplinary and comparative study of race and ethnicity
- Special focus on four historically defined groups: Native Americans, African Americans, Asian Americans, and Latina/o Americans
- Intersection with class, gender and sexuality and other forms of difference, hierarchy and oppression
- Considers actions to identify, mitigate and eliminate these forces

3

An Emerging Consensus

- Task Force on the Advancement of Ethnic Studies
- California Assembly Bill 1460
- Academic Senate CSU
- Office of the Chancellor

4

A CSU Solution Reflecting our Communities

- Inclusive
- Faculty-driven
- Campus-created learning outcomes
- Reflective of social justice

5

Proposed Title 5 Change

Ethnic Studies and Social Change

- Three unit lower-division
- Four historic Ethnic Studies disciplines and additional historically oppressed groups
- Implement in academic year 2023-24
