APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN FOR RARE OPPORTUNITY TO STUDY WITH WORLD-RENOWNED ARTISTS

Summer Master Classes in the Disciplines of Visual Art/Design, Dance, Music, Media, Theatre, and Writing, Give Students Unique Opportunity to Network and Build Portfolios

Students, block your summer calendars now. Artists, writers, actors, photographers, dancers and creators – this is your opportunity to study side-by-side with the greats in your chosen fields. YOU are invited to apply to the courses offered during the 2018 CSU Summer Arts season; courses taught by a mind-blowing list of world-renowned talents.

The 2018 season of CSU Summer Arts classes will be taught by the likes of the Atlantic Brass Quintet, Spectrum Dance Theatre, and acclaimed journalist Bob Dotson. Three study abroad options are also available, including courses that take place in Germany, Italy, and the returning La Guitarra Espanola in Granada, Spain.

With a focus on pre-professional and master students, CSU Summer Arts classes are taught by a combination of incredibly dedicated and talented California State University (CSU) professors, and by guest artists who are some of the most highly accomplished in their fields.

Deadlines for class applications vary. To see the complete class list, along with application criteria and deadlines, please visit www.csusummerarts.org.

Students who take the opportunity to study at CSU Summer Arts can earn three to six units of transferable credits, will build their portfolios, and create lasting professional relationships.

About Summer Arts

CSU Summer Arts is a stateside and international program of the California State University program. We serve all of California, and beyond! In addition to students and faculty from the CSU, California Community Colleges, and the University of California, we also invite public school teachers, student artists and faculty from private schools and colleges throughout the United States and abroad, working professionals, and qualified international students to enroll.
