CSU The California State University

STUDENT SUCCESS

QUALITY EDUCATION

PHYSICAL HEALTH

FOOD

HOUSING

MENTAL WELL-BEING

SENSE OF BELONGING
Funding Student Health

• Campus-based student fees
• All funds are to be dedicated to student health center operations
• Fees may be covered by financial aid programs, depending on student eligibility
Student Health Centers

- Primary outpatient care
- First aid
- Reproductive health services
- Prevention programs
- Laboratory services
- X-ray services
- Pharmacy services
- Medical liaison services
- Evaluation and guidance
- Consultation and referrals
- Consultation on campus health issues
- Health promotion
Student Health & Counseling Services

- Fully integrated health, counseling and health promotion services
- Student Health Center
  - 30,000+ visits annually
  - 50% utilization
- Counseling and Psychological Services
  - 10,000+ visits annually
  - 10% utilization
Highlights

• Shared electronic health records
• Coordinated care team
• Urgent care counselor
• Preventative health screenings
• Extended hours
• Expanded services and programs
• Maximize use of technology
• Satellite counseling offices
Critical Success Factors

• Stay agile
• Maintain relevance
• Act sustainably
• Add value
• Support the entire campus community
Health Education

- Online information
- Workshops
- Peer Health Educators
California State University, Fullerton

Katy Johnson
Sandra Belat
Nika Dowlat
Peer Health Educators
Innovative Efforts

• Building connections with basic needs services
• Transitioning to integrated models of care
• Standardizing health promotion services
• Enhancing referral services
• Measuring the impact of health services