

GWE SCORING GUIDE

Faculty Readers should score papers in reference to the standards that emerge from both the scoring guide and the sample papers. Faculty Reader's interpretation of such terms as "competence," "effectively," and "well developed" should be significantly influenced by the sample papers on the topic being scored. Though examinees are asked to write on a specific topic, parts of the topic may be treated by implication. Faculty Readers should focus on what the examinee does well. Writers should not be penalized excessively for slight shifts in idiom or problems with articles and confused prepositions so long as such features do not obscure meaning.
