If the "% SABRC Compliant" rate (column 4) is less than 50% for a category, please provide an explanation. An explanation for all deficient categories is important during the review of your annual report. In addition, please include any other relevant information or issues.

The CSU was deficient in the Antifreeze, Glass, Lubricating Oils, Paint, and Tire categories for several reasons: - These items are often purchased by Facilities and Capital departments, which operate outside of Procurement and reporting procedures are harder to implement and enforce because of this. - The Buy Recycled coordinators who generate the campus reports are from Procurement and coordinating with those in the other departments responsible for these types of purchases can be challenging. - Vendors oftentimes do not give campuses adequate information about the Recycled content of purchases up front. - Recording and reporting procedures systemwide are not standardized at the present time. The Printing and Paper products fell short of the 50% threshold because the Staples has been defaulting paper orders to a 30/70 recycled to new pulp breakdown for our paper orders. The CSU is working to increase that standard to 50/50 going forward and we anticipate meeting the threshold in the coming Fiscal Year.

Contracts and Procurement
State agencies must procure post-consumer recycled content products whenever feasible, including as part of contracts. Each state agency shall require the businesses with whom it contracts to use, to the maximum extent economically feasible in the performance of the contract work, recycled products. Please refer to Public Contract Code Section 12200-12217. State agencies should track all applicable purchases within Statewide contracts or leveraged procurement agreements.
