Graduate Fellowships in Coastal and Marine Ecosystems Research at California State University, Monterey Bay

The NOAA Center for Coastal and Marine Ecosystems Graduate Fellowship provides funding for two years of graduate study. Center research emphases include Coastal Resilience, Coastal Intelligence and Place-Based Conservation. Students applying to the thesis program in Environmental Science or Marine Science at CSUMB are eligible for funding.

Program Benefits
Two years of stipend, $20,000/year. Third year available dependent on thesis progress
In-state tuition support
$10,000 research scholarship
12-week internship
Participation in a week-long, place-based core competency skills course
Additional travel and research support available

Application Dates:
Opens Sep 1, 2019
Closes Feb 1, 2020

Program Dates:
2 year fellowship, starting Fall 2020

Contact
cme@csumb.edu

Learn more at:
https://csumb.edu/cme/graduate-students

NOAA CCME is a partnership led by Florida A&M University and funded by NOAA’s Educational Partnership Program with Minority Serving Institutions. Cooperative Agreement Award #NA16SEC4810009