2020 WRPI Annual Conference
Call for CSU Faculty and Student Presentations

WRPI is currently planning its 2020 Annual Conference, which will be held at Cal State LA on April 17, 2020. There will also be an optional field trip on April 16, 2020.

We are seeking CSU faculty, staff, and students interested in presenting their research and/or discussing their expertise as panelists in topics related to our conference theme, “Comprehensive Impacts of Water Quality.”

Presentation Topics

1. In agriculture
2. In the environment
3. In humans
4. In infrastructure

Proposals will be accepted for:

Presentations - Team or individual proposals accepted from students and/or faculty. Presentations will run approximately 15 minutes each.

Application Process:

Selections will be made by the WRPI Conference Planning Committee based upon desired topics, flow of content, educational value, and understanding of the content. All selected content will be published in conference publications and on WRPI's website.

Speaker Benefits:

The WRPI does not pay an honorarium to its speakers. However, travel expenses, meals, and lodging will be reimbursed within the guidelines of CSUSB's travel policies. All speakers will receive access to all sessions, panels, breakfast and lunch. Speakers will be featured in the conference publication and on the WRPI website.

Questions, concerns, or comments should be directed to lramos@csufresno.edu. The WRPI reserves the right to decline a submission for presentation at the 2020 WRPI Annual Conference.
