THE STORE IS NOW OPEN!

How a shared barrier to student success became a bountiful partnership between the local CCC and CSU
ABOUT YOUR PRESENTERS

JESSICA MEDINA
Coordinator, Food Security Project
California State University, Fresno

SEAN HENDERSON
Dean of Student Services
Fresno City College
STEP ONE-
IDENTIFYING THE NEED

- How we identified hunger on our campuses
- Research that supported our hunch
STEP TWO-
FORMING A GUIDED COALITION

- Finding campus partners
- Finding community partners
STEP THREE-
DEVELOP A PLAN TO ADDRESS HUNGER (BWEIM)

- Initial pantry design
- Branding/Marketing
- Fundraising
- Food source(s)
- Power Person
- Regulations
STEP FOUR-ENROLLING CAMPUS LEADERSHIP

- Campus Executive Leadership
- Faculty/Staff
- Student body
STEP FIVE -
GATHER DATA AND COMMUNICATE

- Necessary data to collect
- How it will be collected
- How it will be communicated
Ram Pantry Academic Performance Analysis

Success Rates By Race/Ethnicity

The below analysis shows that African-American and Hispanic/Latinx students who visit the Ram Pantry display higher rates of course completion than those who do not visit the Ram Pantry.

Number of Pantry Visits and GPA

The below scatter plot shows the GPA for Hispanic/Latinx and White (non-Hispanic) students is positively correlated (p-value < 0...
STEP SIX - CELEBRATING MILESTONES

- Set benchmarks
- How will they be celebrated?
- Include everyone!
STEP SEVEN- EMBED INTO YOUR CAMPUS CULTURE

- Marketing and branding
- Markers on campus
- Shirts
- Monuments
WHAT WE LEARNED
Q&A

JESSICA MEDINA
559-278-0866
jemedina@csufresno.edu

SEAN HENDERSON
559-442-8291
sean.henderson@fresnocitycollege.edu