Chair Linscheid called the meeting to order.

Public Comment

The board heard from the following individuals: Alisandra Brewer, vice president representation, yielded her time; John Orr, chair bargaining unit 7, CSUEU, addressed the presidents regarding the accounting clerk classification. Specifically, he asked presidents Zingg, Welty, Richmond, Karnig, Armstrong and Ortiz to re-classify those few employees on their campuses who are working under this classification to Account Technician 1; Susan Green, treasurer CFA, expressed disappointment at the passing of the Title 5 changes. She also expressed excitement at the board's position on Proposition 30 and she also spoke about budget scenarios and asked the board what the plans were for reduction of non-represented employees; John Halcon, secretary CFA, was unable to attend; Rich Anderson, president UAW Local 4123, stated that all CSU employees should work together in a get-out-the-vote plan to pass Proposition 30, Governor Brown's tax initiative; Gabriel Regalado, SQE, student, CSU Los Angeles, noted that Natalie Dorado, SQE student, CSU San Bernardino was unable to attend and that he was speaking in her place, spoke against executive compensation and renovations of presidential housing; Erik Dimitruk, SQE, graduate student, CSU Los Angeles, spoke about student debt and against tuition increases at the CSU and expressed his support of Proposition 30; Yesenia Ramirez, SQE student, CSU Los Angeles, spoke against executive compensation, renovations of presidential housing and Title 5 changes; Hector Escobar, president ASI, CSU Los Angeles, stated that he was speaking on his own behalf and not that of his ASI. He spoke against refunding 9 percent and instead asked the board to refund 4.95 percent and put the rest into financial aid. He also spoke against executive compensation and in favor of Proposition 30; Raiza Arias, SQE student, CSU Northridge spoke instead of Edgar Ramos, SQE student, CSU Northridge who was unable to attend; she provided a personal anecdote about her life. The board also heard from Seth Door-Smasher Newmyer.

Title 5. Education
Division 5. Board of Trustees of the California State Universities
Chapter 1. California State University
Subchapter 2. Educational Program
Article 5. General Requirements for Graduation

§ 40403. Required Residence.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Section, 30 semester units (45 quarter units) shall be earned in residence at the campus granting the degree. Twenty-four of these units (36 quarter units) shall be earned in upper-division courses and 12 of the semester units (18 quarter units) shall be in the major.

(b) Extension credit (often associated with professional development activities) or credit by evaluation shall not be used to fulfill any requirement prescribed by this section; provided, however, that the Chancellor may designate specified extension courses that may be offered for residence credit and may establish policies and procedures under which residence credit may be earned by evaluation. Academic credit earned through extended education may be applied toward the degree requirements.

(c) When the circumstances of an individual case make it appropriate, the appropriate campus authority may authorize the substitution of credit earned at other campuses or institutions for residence credit.

Title 5. Education
Division 5. Board of Trustees of the California State Universities
Chapter 1. California State University
Subchapter 2. Educational Program
Article 5. General Requirements for Graduation

§ 40407.1. Special Session Credit.

A maximum of 24 semester units (36 quarter units) taken by a student in non-matriculated status may be applied toward the degree. This maximum applies to ~~in~~ special session course credit earned through state supported or self supported ~~regular~~ course offerings ~~in non-matriculated status may be applied toward the degree. There is no limit on the number of special session course units that may be earned in matriculated status and applied toward the degree.~~ The Chancellor is authorized to establish and revise criteria for application of special session credits earned through enrollment in state supported or self supported regular course offerings toward the degree, in accordance with applicable law.

Recommended Changes to Title 5, California Code of Regulations, Related to Standard Requirements for Nursing Degree Programs (REP 07-12-03)

Trustee Farar moved the item; there was a second. The Board of Trustees approved the following resolution:

RESOLVED, by the Board of Trustees of the California State University, acting under Section 89030 of the Education Code, that sections 40540 and 40541 of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations are added as follows:

Title 5, California Code of Regulations
Division 5 -- Board of Trustees of the California State Universities

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Conferral of Title of President Emeritus: Robert A. Corrigan

Presentation By

Bob Linscheid
Chair

Summary

It is recommended that the title of President Emeritus be conferred on Dr. Robert A. Corrigan for his distinguished service. The following resolution is recommended for approval:

WHEREAS, Dr. Robert A. Corrigan served as the 12th president of San Francisco State University from September 1988 to July 2012; and

WHEREAS, he assumed the helm at San Francisco State University as the institution was in the midst of transition and used his considerable collaborative abilities to establish a rapport between administration and faculty that has made the institution flexible and responsive in the service of its students; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Robert A. Corrigan established social justice and equity as campus hallmarks leading the Princeton Review to designate SF State as a “College with a Conscience” and a recent WASC review team to conclude that, “SFSU can indeed claim that social justice is part of its DNA. The evidence is pervasive throughout the campus community;” and

WHEREAS, his commitment to diversity has literally changed the face of the campus—evidenced by the hiring of approximately 1,000 faculty over 24 years, 70 percent of whom were women or people of color and by a student body that is 58 percent female and 70 percent people of color; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Robert A. Corrigan’s leadership in national higher education, including the Association of American Colleges and Universities, the American Council on Education, the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, and his service to President Bill Clinton as head of the steering committee of presidents for the “America Reads” and “America Counts” initiatives, has helped put San Francisco State University and the California State University at the forefront of important national conversations; and

BOT

Agenda Item 3

March 19-20, 2012

WHEREAS, his acknowledgement of the importance of educating for the global society has led to San Francisco State University becoming one of the top destinations for international students seeking Master's degrees and a leader within the CSU in the number of undergraduates studying abroad; and

WHEREAS, he made San Francisco State a central partner in regional economic development and embodied SF State's institutional commitment to its community by serving two terms as the chair of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, served on the Mayor's Biotechnology Advisory Council, the Children, Youth and Family Policy Council and was named "Most Admired CEO" by the San Francisco Business Times; and

WHEREAS, following Dr. Robert A. Corrigan's example, students at San Francisco State University contribute more than 500,000 hours of service to their community each year; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Robert A. Corrigan has worked diligently to provide students and faculty with an environment that is consistent with the importance of their work - opening the Downtown Center facility in the heart of San Francisco, revitalizing the Romberg Tiburon Center for Environmental Studies, facilitating the revitalization of the J. Paul Leonard and Sutro Libraries, and laying the groundwork for a new Recreation and Wellness Center and the Mashouf Performing Arts Center; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees of the California State University confer the title of President Emeritus on Dr. Robert A. Corrigan, with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereto.

Conferral of Title of President Emeritus: William B. Eisenhardt

Presentation By

Bob Linscheid
Chair

It is recommended that the title of President Emeritus be conferred on Dr. William B. Eisenhardt for his distinguished service. The following resolution is recommended for approval:

WHEREAS, Dr. William B. Eisenhardt served as president of The California Maritime Academy from July 2001 to July 2012; and

WHEREAS, during his 11 years as president Dr. Eisenhardt presided over the opening of two new academic buildings, a new residence hall and the transformation of the synthetic turf athletic field, and commenced planning for a $18 million dining hall and $34 million physical fitness and water survival center; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure enrollment at Cal Maritime doubled, with nearly 20% women students and over 30% under-represented minority groups; and

WHEREAS, during Dr. Eisenhardt's tenure charitable giving to Cal Maritime increased fivefold, including a $3 million donation establishing the ABS School of Maritime Policy and Management; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Eisenhardt led the planning and development of Cal Maritime's $15 million Simulation Center, which is now recognized as one of the finest such training facilities in the world; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Eisenhardt increased Cal Maritime's national and international exposure, with Cal Maritime being named by U.S. News and World Report and Forbes magazines as one of the top U.S. colleges; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Eisenhardt has spent his life and career in the service of this country and higher education, and in view of his contributions, it is fitting that he be recognized by the California State University; now therefore, be it
