Out of consideration for the health, safety and well-being of the members of the public and the Chancellor's Office staff, the January 26-27, 2021 meeting of the CSU Board of Trustees was conducted entirely virtually via Zoom teleconference.

Sponsored State Legislation for 2021

Mr. Garrett Ashley, vice chancellor for university relations and advancement, reported that Governor Newsom presented his budget proposal on January 8 and the legislature reconvened on January 11. The Office of Advocacy and State Relations has organized numerous, substantive virtual interactions between legislative staff, the Legislative Analyst's Office and campuses. CSU staff have met with newly elected legislative members and continued to keep lawmakers apprised of the CSU's response to the pandemic.

Ms. Nichole Muñoz-Murillo, assistant vice chancellor for advocacy and state relations, presented one legislative proposal for consideration and provided an update on Sacramento advocacy efforts, including the upcoming CSU Advocacy Week and virtual campus tours for key legislative staff that were hosted by San Francisco State and CSU Bakersfield.

The legislative proposal would allocate ongoing funding from the Proposition 63 Administrative Fund to the CSU, the California Community Colleges and the University of California to bolster student mental health services. Student well-being and mental health are central to the systemwide Basic Needs Initiative, a critical component of Graduation Initiative 2025. The expansion of mental health services is an identified priority of campus and systemwide leadership, the California State Student Association, the Academic Senate and the California Faculty Association.

The committee recommended approval by the board of the proposed resolution (RGR 01-21-02) adopting the Sponsored State Legislation for 2021.

Federal Agenda for 2021 and 2022

Mr. Ashley reported that federal funds for minority-serving institutions, student aid and research are all vital to CSU's success. In addition, CSU students and campuses have received critical federal resources in response to the ongoing pandemic, most recently through significant relief legislation passed at the end of December.

Mr. Jim Gelb, assistant vice chancellor for federal relations, presented recommendations for the 2021-2022 Federal Agenda, which are the same six categories prioritized in the last session, with a few minor adjustments to the details:

- Improve college access and completion through aid to students;
- Prepare students for college success;
- Foster degree completion for California's diverse population;
- Educate students for tomorrow's workforce;
- Solve societal problems through applied research; and
- Enhance campus health, safety and infrastructure

The three top priorities for additional proactive advocacy efforts are:

- Placing renewed emphasis on support for Dreamers, including by granting them access to the full range of federal student aid programs;
- Adding a new priority focused on obtaining additional relief and flexibilities related to the COVID-19 pandemic; and
- Promoting enhancement of the Pell Grant program by seeking both a significant increase in the maximum grant and a restoration of the automatic annual cost-of-living increase.

Opportunities and challenges in the upcoming year include building relationships with the new Biden administration and 117th Congress, as well as continued advocacy in the virtual environment.

Trustee Sabalius requested that support for a robust investment in the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) be added to the details under Educate Students for Tomorrow's Workforce. There were no objections from the board, and staff agreed it was appropriate to add the NEH to the list.

Trustee Abrego asked for a future report on the DC Scholars program to learn about the impact of the program and how the trustees can support its possible expansion.

The committee recommended approval by the board of the proposed resolution (RGR 01-21-03) adopting the Federal Agenda for 2021 and 2022.

Trustee Farar adjourned the meeting.
